Ex-Ante Cost Disclosure

This document provides you with key information about Corporate Investment Bank Services. It is not marketing material. The purpose of this document is to break down and illustrate the Costs and Charges associated with a service in relation to a Class of Products. This document provides examples of particular services related to an ESMA Asset Class¹ and the Costs and Charges associated with them. The Costs and Charges figures provided in this document are illustrative of the Costs and Charges associated with particular Products and services, but (to the extent indicated in this document) may not reflect the Costs and Charges associated with any actual transaction. If you have any questions in relation to the Costs and Charges associated with any particular Product or service, please raise these with your usual Deutsche Bank Representative. We will provide to you Annual information in relation to the Costs and Charges associated with transactions actually carried out with you.

What are the Costs?

Deutsche Bank charges fees or commission for the services provided by it in relation to the relevant Class of Products, which may include ongoing as well as initial charges. In addition, certain third party costs may be payable, as indicated. Further details of fees and commission are set out in documentation provided to you separately.
